The Board has full, unrestricted and timely access to all information pertaining to the Group’s business affairs. All members of the Board have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretaries and are entitled to obtain professional opinions or advice from external consultants when the need arises at the expense of the Group. The Company Secretary attends all Board meetings and is responsible for ensuring that Board procedures as well as statutory and regulatory requirements relating to the duties and responsibilities of the Directors are complied with.

Role of Managing Director, Executive Director and Non-Executive Directors

The Managing Director holds the primary executive responsibility for the Group’s business performance and manages the Group in accordance with the strategies and policies approved by the Board. He leads the Executive Directors in making and implementing day-to-day operational business decisions, managing resources and risks in pursuing the corporate objectives of the Group. He brings material and other relevant matters to the Board, motivates employees, and drives change/innovation and growth.

Executive Directors are involved in leadership roles overseeing the day-to-day operations within their specific area of expertise or assigned responsibility. They represent the company at the highest level and are decision makers on matters within their scope of works. They liaise frequently with the Managing Director and with each other to lead the management to drive

Non-executive Directors are not involved in the day-to-day running of the Group, but contribute their particular expertise and wealth of experience to developing the business strategy. They have various roles in the Board Committees and contribute significantly, especially in the enhancement of the corporate governance and controls of the Group. They must be individuals of high caliber, sound reputation and standing and bring independent judgment to the Board’s decision making.

Board Meetings

Frequency of meetings

The Board shall meet quarterly and at any such times as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities.

Quorum of meetings

A quorum for a meeting shall be at least two (2) members. The Board is provided with an agenda and comprehensive board papers on a timely basis prior to board meetings. This is to ensure the Directors to discharge their duties and responsibilities competently and in a well-informed manner. The Company Secretary records all the deliberations including pertinent issues, the substance of inquiries and responses, Board members’ suggestions and the decision made in the Minutes of the Board meetings. The Minutes of every Board meeting are also circulated to the Directors for their perusal prior to confirmation of the Minutes at the following Board meeting.

Company Secretary

The company secretary shall be responsible for the preparation of meeting agendas and the distribution of relevant Board papers to all Board members. He/she ensures that all Board procedures, applicable rules and regulations are complied

Board Committees

The Board shall establish Board committees as appropriate and necessary to assist in matters that require particular review. The following are Board committees:

- Audit Committee
- Nominating Committee
- Remuneration Committee

The duties of these committees are specified in their own Terms of Reference which are reviewed from time to time. The Board may also delegate specific function to ad hoc committees as and when need dictates.

Directors' Training and Education

All newly appointed Directors must complete the Mandatory Accreditation Programme and to undergo suitable orientation training, followed by regular seminars and briefings to continuously upgrade their knowledge and understanding of their role and responsibilities, the economic scenario and the industry climate.
