 - b. Directors should ensure that necessary steps are taken in accordance with the law to properly wind-up or strike off the company register if the Company has not commenced business or has ceased to carry on business and is not likely to commence business in the future or resume business, as the case may be.

Disclosure and Conflict of Interest

The Articles of Association of the Company stipulates that every Director shall comply with the provisions of section 131 and 135 of the Companies Act 1965 in connection with the disclosure of the following:

1. interest in shares, debentures, participatory interests, rights, options; and
2. interest in any contract or proposed contract with the Company.

The guidelines for the Board and its Directors on conflict of interest are, among others, the following:

1. Directors must act in good faith at all times, where believing to be in the best interest of the Company. The definition of “interest” shall bear the meaning provided in Section 6A of the Malaysian Companies Act, 1965;
2. Directors have a general duty to make disclosure by giving written notice within a stipulated period of the Company of such events and matters relating to himself as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Company or its officers to comply with the Companies Act (or similar legislation) and other relevant legislative requirements; and
3. No director may vote in respect of any other contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he is interested, directly or indirectly, nor any contract or proposed contract or arrangement with any other company in which he is interested, directly or indirectly, either as an officer of that other company or as a holder of shares or other securities in that other company.
